

NOW GET WELL!

Paine's Celery Compound After the Grip.

It Makes the Weak Strong—Cures Nervous Debility, Relieves the Wretchedness that Comes from Sickness Indoors.

Let the sun shine!

Get strength. Be well!

Mrs. John E. Jacobs tells a plain but impressive story:

"I have been taking Paine's celery compound," she says, "and feel myself greatly improved so much so that I consider myself well. I was left last February, from an attack of the grip, in a fair state of health, with great nervous debility. I can hardly express how weakly I felt when I commenced using Paine's celery compound. And I began to gradually improve up to the present time until I now feel able to do my work, for which I feel thankful enough. I think the remedy valuable indeed."

Mrs. Jacobs resides at 3128 Oak st., in Youngstown, O. She has had the same experience as thousands of women, east and west.

There is in the very structure of a household conducted on even the simplest plan enough causes for fatigue, nervous strain, enough work and worry to tax the energy and ingenuity of the most robust woman.

A woman holding up a home on her shoulders, the monotonous routine of dish-washing, washing, repairing, shielding, darning and mending, till the fingers refuse their bending and the eyelids drop.

The present generation of women is more subject to pronatal weakness and ill health than its predecessor. The grip first attacks the poor in health. These are the individuals from men and women who have been stricken with intense colds show that Paine's celery compound quickly makes them well again, because it is for the nerves, it purifies the blood. It has saved thousands from chronic illness.

TO USE THE BALLOT.

Chicago Workmen and Socialists to Form a Combination.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—A movement which, if successful, is likely to have a wide-spread influence throughout the United States will be inaugurated here tomorrow. For some time past the labor leaders and socialists of the City have been coming to the conclusion that there is more efficiency in the ballot box for the advancement of the wage earning classes than in dynamic battle and revolution.

If the wage earners could obtain control of the city council or the balance of power in that body they argue that much could be done to promote the interests of the masses. With this idea prominent there will meet tomorrow a conference of the representative leaders of the various labor organizations of the city, and also representatives of the English, German, Scandinavian, Italian, Bohemian and Polish socialists.

The intention is to bring into existence an organization directed against the gubernatorial campaign of the coming spring. In about twenty-one words of the city the wage earner voters are in the majority, and it is thought by concentrating their efforts on these particular words they can insure the election of a people's majority in the city parliament.

Mr. Dietrich claims that he is able to determine the character of stone or mineral contained in the earth at any given point by use of a divining rod. Among the gentlemen backing the enterprise are Postmaster A. J. Arnold, Hon. J. H. Pough, Hon. T. M. James and J. L. Bawley.

A number of North side capitalists have formed an association for the purpose of prospecting for coal and mineral north of town. The work will be in charge of Joseph Dietrich, a German, who has had great experience in this line of work in the mining districts of Pennsylvania. Land has been leased in the locality designated by Mr. Dietrich as most likely to produce profitable results. He says he has been prospecting some on his own account, and struck a vein of coal four feet thick, but only the lower two feet was good coal, so that it would be necessary to mine a four foot space to get two feet of coal which would not pay. He believes he will be able to strike the same vein this time where there will be good coal all the way through.

HO, LOYAL AMERICANS!

Division Commander Osborn Organizes the New Order

WHICH IS TO REFORM POLITICS.

Thirty Committees in Kansas Already Said to be Organized—How It Is Done.

Division Commander R. S. Osborn has begun the work of organization of the Ancient Order of Loyal Americans, and has appointed his brigadier generals in a large number of the counties of the state.

Ex-Congressman John G. Otis has been tendered the generalship for this county, and Secretary J. G. Samuelson of the Trades' Assembly, has also been honored with the appointment of regimental commander for the city. Neither of these gentlemen has informed Mr. Osborn whether they will accept the position or not.

Mr. Osborn has made his county appointments in about one-half the counties of the state, and says that in thirty days every township and city in the state will be organized.

The letter of appointment sent out by Mr. Osborn is as follows:

Dear Sirs: You have been selected as commander of the Brigade of Ancient Order of Loyal Americans to be raised at once in your—county. If you accept this position you will be expected, and required, to move at once to organize your county, by first selecting good energetic men, one in each township as regimental commanders, whom you will instruct to select as many captains in their several townships as their population may need, and proceed at once to enlist their companies by taking names of such as wish to join. Do not wait for further instructions, but proceed to business. Your commission as brigade commander will be sent you as soon as possible.

If you cannot accept this position for any reason, will you so kind as to find some good energetic man who will, and who will move at once and push the work of organization. Please reply immediately stating whether you will accept.

We hope to have every township in the state organized in thirty days, and every state in the union in ninety days. All necessary papers will be sent us soon as you are ready for them.

ODD FELLOWS.

Interesting Statistics of the Order—Rebekah Degree Notes.

Grand Patriarch J. McIntyre, who is an adept at figures, has examined the records and prepared the following very interesting tables: On Jan. 1, 1893, there were 1,000 subordinate lodges with a membership of 747,225. The general membership averages 75 to a lodge. In 1892 there were 1,000 lodges, 26,504, which averages 8½ to each lodge of the year. Averaging the time devoted to lodge meetings at two hours, initiates would represent two candidates every minute. Throughout the order last year there was paid for relief $2,015,980, which averages $8,323 per day, $44 per hour, $3.75 per minute and nearly 10 cents every second during the year. In the Rebekah branch there were Jan. 1, 1893, 929 members, an increase in one year of 26,018, averaging three every hour in 1892. The relief paid by Rebekah lodges amounted to $82,475, or nearly $9 a day.

There are 21 Rebekah lodges and 600 Rebekahs in Virginia.

Maine, with 36,000 members, paid the sovereign lodge last year for supplies less than two-thirds as much as New Hampshire.

Under the new law five members constitute a quorum of Rebekah lodges for the transaction of business.

The grand lodge of Maine has wisely fixed the minimum fee-for-admission to the Rebekah lodge at $1. We think it would be well for all grand lodges to do the same thing.

Rebekah lodges should strive to cultivate the social element in their meetings. Our order lacks in this respect.

The Rebekah lodge to be instituted at Swanson, Mass., will be called Dorothy Brown Rebekah lodge, No. 122, after the wife of one of the first settlers of the place.

Give the Rebekah branch the dignity it should have, and then it will be a more useful and brilliant ornament to Odd Fellowship.

A new Rebekah lodge has been instituted in Toronto.

No part of Odd Fellowship is growing more rapidly in proportion to numbers than the Rebekah branch, and no part is more worthy of the aid and encouragement of members of subordinate lodges.

Ottawa is to have another Rebekah lodge.

South Dakota reports a net gain of 304 in the subordinate lodges, being a gain of 40 per cent., a gain of 132 in the Rebekah branch and a rather discouraging report from the encampments.

Two Rebekah lodges were
